BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT (LYNDSEY GRAY)

Born and raised in Moray, Lyndsey recently graduated from Duncan of Jordanstone College of Art & Design, Dundee with a BA (Hons) Time Based Art & Digital Film. Her work mainly focuses within Performance Art and Photography yet she also included an installation of textile works at her degree show. Her recent work looked at perfection and failure; mainly concerning the ideals of feminine beauty within the Western culture.

PERSONAL STATEMENT (LYNDSEY GRAY)

My current body of work is a combination of some previous work, "Fabrication of Reality", which includes patchwork cushions that ironically comfort the phrases we see everyday within our Hollywood driven culture with some new works of embroideries. These new works titled "The Alpha Male" will be focusing on the differences between our own culture and nature; mainly focusing on how the male bird tends to be beautiful and flamboyant than the dull and understated female (partly to protect herself and her
